WHAT I AM LOOKING FOR

I am not looking for a mirror image of myself. I am looking for a person with her own education, her own opinions, and her own way of seeing the world. Someone who has built something for herself — a career, a passion, a point of view and knows what she wants from life.

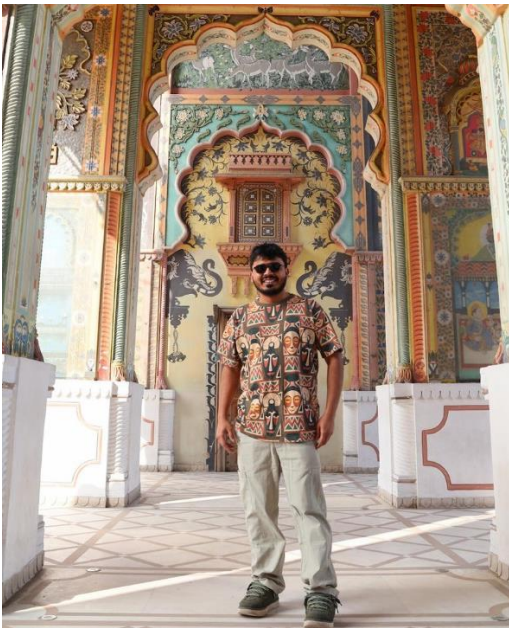

Germany is where my life is built. After eight years here, I am looking for someone open to building her future alongside me whether that means continuing her career, exploring new professional growth, or being brave enough to begin something new. I know what that journey feels like. I made it myself, and I will not let her make it alone.

Education preference: Engineering (Mechanical, CS, Mechatronics, E&TC, Electronics), MBBS, BDS, or a suitable bachelor's degree. Open to further studies or career in Germany.

*"I know what it feels like to arrive in a new country alone, with a suitcase and a lot of hope.
I will not let her make that journey alone."*
